Terms and Conduct – Sensory Perception (Lessons in English)

Thank you for choosing to participate in this course.

To ensure a harmonious, respectful, and transparent learning experience for all participants, please read these Terms and Conduct carefully.

By participating in this course, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and fully accepted these Terms and Conduct.

Course Information

1. During the course, all practices, exercises, demonstrations, and sharing that take place during the lessons may be recorded. These recordings may be made available to participants in this class and future classes exclusively for study purposes. This includes the participants' personal sharing, their comments, and the guidance provided by the Facilitator.
2. All content covered and shared during the course must be kept strictly confidential. Any form of recording, reproduction, copying, distribution, or sharing of the course materials, including texts, videos, audio recordings, live lessons, and their respective recordings, with anyone outside the course is strictly prohibited without the Facilitator's prior authorization.

Participant Conduct During the Lessons

1. The participant must join the online session 15 minutes before the scheduled start time. This period is necessary for the group's vibrational calibration and the establishment of energetic protection fields in the environments where the participants are located, ensuring the appropriate harmonization for the work to be carried out.
2. The camera must remain on throughout the entire lesson.
3. The participant must remain in a quiet location, without the presence of other people, throughout the entire lesson.
4. The use of headphones is mandatory throughout the entire lesson.
5. Late arrivals will not interrupt the normal flow of the lesson and will not entitle the participant to a repetition of the content already covered or the guidance already provided.
6. All participants must treat one another with mutual respect, regardless of their beliefs, opinions, or experiences.
7. Judgments, offensive behavior, or destructive criticism directed at the Facilitator or other participants will not be tolerated.

Facilitator's Responsibility

1. The Facilitator will provide spiritual guidance and support throughout the course. However, responsibility for the process, the choices made, and the application of the knowledge acquired rests solely with the participant.
2. The Facilitator accepts no responsibility for any decisions, actions, or omissions made by the participant based on the content covered or the perceptions developed during or after the course.
3. The Facilitator shall not be held liable for any direct or indirect damages, losses, harm, or inconvenience arising from participation in the course or from any decisions made by the participant after its completion.
4. All personal information shared with the Facilitator will be treated as confidential, except where disclosure is required by law, including situations involving a risk to the life, safety, or physical integrity of any person.

Cancellation

After payment has been confirmed, a cancellation request may be submitted within 7 calendar days from the date of payment, provided that the course has not yet begun. Once the course has started, cancellation and refunds will no longer be available.

Important Notice

The Sensory Perception lessons are intended exclusively for the development of sensory perception and are not a substitute for medical, psychological, or other healthcare services.

The Facilitator does not diagnose, prescribe treatments, or provide medical, psychological, or psychiatric advice.

Intellectual Property

All materials made available during the course, including documents, recordings, notes, exercises, images, and all other content produced or provided during the lessons, are the intellectual property of the Facilitator.

It is strictly prohibited to reproduce, record, distribute, adapt, commercialize, share, or otherwise use these materials, in whole or in part, without the Facilitator's prior written authorization.

Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

The parties agree to first seek an amicable resolution to any dispute or disagreement arising from participation in the Sensory Perception Course.

If no agreement can be reached, the dispute shall be submitted to the competent court of Amsterdam, the Netherlands, and shall be governed by the laws of the Netherlands.

Termination of the Agreement

The Facilitator reserves the right to immediately terminate, without refund, the participation of any person who engages in verbal abuse, defamation, slander, intimidation, harassment, or any other behavior that compromises the proper functioning of the course or the well-being of the Facilitator and the other participants.

In addition to being removed from the course, the Facilitator may take any legal action deemed appropriate to protect their rights.

Declaration of Agreement

By proceeding with the registration for the Sensory Perception Course and selecting "I have read and accept the Terms and Conduct of the Course," the participant acknowledges that they have read, understood, and fully accepted these Terms and Conduct.

Reading and accepting these Terms and Conduct are mandatory requirements for participation in the course.
